DEDICATION

TO EXPRESS OUR DEEPEST GRATITUDE AND MOST SINCERE WISHES, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1950 TAKES PLEASURE IN DEDICATING THIS MEMOIR TO OUR SPONSORS, MRS. TOMPKINS AND MISS FULTON, AND OUR PRINCIPAL, MR. REID. BY DEVOTION TO THEIR PROFESSION AND INTEREST IN OUR PROBLEMS, THEY HAVE BROUGHT US ONE STEP CLOSER TO OUR GOAL OF BETTER CITIZENSHIP.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. G. H. REID, Principal

William and Mary College, B.S., M.A.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

You who are graduating from high school this year find yourselves facing a world filled with many kinds of isms—a world in which there seems to be much instability in man's thinking—a world in which man seems to be self-centered and largely interested in what he feels society owes him, rather than in the many opportunities for service. Such feelings on the part of man have a tendency to make for a life of discontentment, selfishness, insecurity, and unhappiness.

True happiness lies in the realm of service. If you would be happy, you will find happiness through service—humble service to God and your fellowman. Happiness and contentment do not necessarily come from outward or material possessions but rather from within ourselves. If you would be happy, so live that you have that feeling of being needed by those with whom you come in contact as you wend your way down the pathway of life.

You now go to join that large group of graduates who have gone out from this school before you. Best wishes to each of you as you go forth to find happiness through service.

G. H. REID, Principal.

PROPHECY

Sophie wos the newest arrivol in Heaven ond didn't know much obout what was going on, but one of the first things she heard obout was the big reunion of Manchester High School's class of '50. According to the gossiping ongels, they were olreody beginning to orrive from oll ports of Heoven for the big event which would toke place at the Celestiol Hotel.

Not to miss onything in her new world, she wondered down to the oirport to see the members arriving on wing with their extro white evening robes carried in little clouds.

Leoding the group wos o most importont man, Mr. Woyne Gibson, who during his life on eorth, hod progressed from editor of the MEMOIR to editor-in-chief of the "New York Times." He wos followed by his stoff of secretories which included Delores Andrews, Jane Bosl, ond Mary Ann Newcomb.

Sophie tagged olong os the group went down Horp Avenue to the hotel. In the lobby much bock-slapping ond hondshoking was going on, since others hod been arriving oll the time.

As Sophie walked in ot Mr. Gibson's side, the first thing thot met her eyes wos the Red Cross flag on the wall opposite. Then she sow Betty Fisher Boss chasing obout in her R. C. uniform moking onother collection. Of course when she came to Ann Hagood, the former greot Physicol Educotion Cooch at Modison College, she was agoin discouroged by Ann's declorotion that she hod no money. "Anyway," she soid, "I'm too busy getting Mr. Garland Campbell to polish my holo." Garlond hod mode All-Americon basketboll team of '55. Noturolly, os near as possible, was Audrion Creosy, but now Mr. A. Creasy, millionoire. He hod invented ond patented o "sure-fire" woy to successfully skip school. Sophie wos shocked to hear on uncelestiol yelp os Doris Collins, retired kindergarten teacher, rushed in to greet Creasy. Their greeting rocked the little hotel, but the noise wos hushed os everyone turned to stare when Peggy Bredemeier, the fomed opero star, poroded in followed by Wrenn Mooring Putney, olso o singer but in the populor vein.

Among the plons for the evening wos o lorge bonquet ond o boll ofterword, which hod been plonned by the Lewis Reeses. Mrs. Reese wos the former Morgoret Simpson, president of the closs of '50. They had never quit working ond hod left their jobs, hers os buyer ot Heoven's bronch store of Murphy's, Inc., ond his os Heod Stockboy there. He had gone places since his graduation ot M. H. S. Joline Hockett and Betty Lou Terrill hod ossisted with the plons ond decorotions. They were especiolly copable, hoving been Home Ec. instructors back on eorth, Joline ot the University of West Virginio ond Betty Lou bock ot Monchester.

And now, Sophie's heart pitter-pottered os thot great dramatist, Thomos Tromley, who hod been second only to Ronold Colemon on earth, rose to quiet everyone ond to moke an onnouncement.

"I hove been osked," he soid, "to introduce our host here ot the Celestial Hotel. The owner ond monoger, the Archangel St. Beelzebub, of course only o distont relative of the so fomous one, now operoting onother estoblishment—St. Beelzebub!"

"Fellow Angels, welcome to this great occosion, the reunion of Monchester's closs of 1950. I offer my wishes for the success of the offair ond hope that you will find the service here the best. I'm olso sorry to announce that the only member obsent is Joyce Stricklond. She sends her wishes for the occosion and the excuse thot she had a little accident. She fell off her boss's knee ond sproined her onkle. Thonk you."

After this, Ardeth Evans and Elvo Clodfelter rushed up to him to get information for orticles in the newspoper they owned. Of course, the paper consisted mostly of poetry. Following them come the sports editor of o rivol poper, Dick Perkins.

Meonwhile in one corner of the lorge lobby wos Mrs. Doris Prentice Copel, who hod retired os president of the Chrysler Corporotion, tolking to Jeonnette "Tiny" Orcutt, now world famous efficiency expert. Neor them Geraldine Monsfield was telling Peggy Moxey how she hod done so much in the clearing of the Richmond slums. Peggy had been o successful privote secretary in New York in her time.

PROPHECY

As everyone drifted toward the steps to dress for the banquet, Sophie heard June Parlow, (now morried to Mann to whom she hod been engaged so long), discussing married life with Edna Cliborne, also happily morried.

Following them up the steps came Mr. Harold Pannell, on insurance salesman, who had had his branch office in Mexico City ond another traveler, Professor Franklin King who had traveled in the capacity of o scholar.

When everyone hod gone upstairs, Sophie roced to the kitchens to "help" and, before she knew it, the bonquet wos being served. Peeking into the bonquet hall she sow thot Irby Brown, who hod been o much sought-after lecturer, wos Master of Ceremonies ond was introducing the first speoker, Mr. Thomos Blockstock, the fomed Physicist on eorth. He spoke briefly, hoving retoined his bashfulness. The next speoker was Wiley Dovis, millionaire professionol footboll player, who announced thot he hod brought with him his private professionol cheerleader, Ginny Root. Mr. Brown next introduced Mr. Richord Hart who told about his octivities as business executive, bonker, droftsmon, ond rodio announcer, besides owning o smoll drugstore in Forest Hills. Next on the ogendo wos Benny Johnson, who spoke on the problems of running the Veteran's Administration ond how hard it was to get bonuses for veterans.

At thot time there was o break in the serious vein. Mr. Brown, with o chuckle, introduced Kotherine Lindsey who gave some of her wittiest impersonations ond monologues. She hod been o fomous radio commedienne. Following Miss Lindsey, Mrs. Betty Boswell Newcomb wos introduced to the gathering. She hod been chosen Mrs. America in the big contest at Atlontic City back on eorth and everyone, especially her husbond, was proud of her.

The program was concluded with o short tolk by Rosolie Johnson on her experience in elementary teaching. Rosalie was seoted next to Leonard Morgon ond seemed reluctont to interrupt his stories of some of his best gomes. Leonard hod played footboll for the University of North Carolino ond hod been colled another "Choo-Choo" Justice.

At the tables, in the meantime, Buddy Hundley hod been telling Freeman Fox how he sold cars "hot off the production line." Freemon wos still looking for o job. Listening in was the noted Southern gentleman, Broodus Crowder.

And then the boll . . . It was o huge success! By request, several of the members helped entertain at intermission. William Clements first gave o short piano recital. He had been o member of the Virginia Symphony Orchestra. Then Tommy Thomason played o piece on his famed trumpet. Several of the classmates, Virginia West, Joyce Monn, Potsy Little, ond Emma Newton had become members of Fred Waring's Glee Club ond although there were only four of them, they gove forth with o lovely rendition of "Stodolo Pumpa."

Then Edith Gunn who had become fomous in the movies for her chorocter parts presented o little monologue starring "Aunt Jemimo."

After intermission, the orchestra storted ogoin ond Sophie, from behind her potted polms, sow among others Naomi Schwortz doncing by with her husband whose face Sophie couldn't see. Noomi had ployed basketboll o while; then settled down to married life. On the other side of the dance floor, Sophie saw Mary Ann Wills chatting goily about her yeors os o grade school teacher.

Then after the boll was over ond everyone was getting back to his room (they had planned to leave for respective parts of Heaven early the next morning) Sophie, as she was going down the hall, happened to see o door half open and stopped by. There in the room seoted on the floor was Hazel Hay, telling stories to the many delighted children of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newton. Mrs. Newton wos the former Arlene Leighty. Sophie quietly shut the door and continued down the hall, thinking what o success the reunion of the 1950 class of Monchester High School had been!

MARTHA "SOPHIE" AUSTIN.

CLASS HISTORY

September of 1945 began a new era in the lives af eighth grade students, as they entered the halls of Manchester for the first time. It was bath fascinating and frightening as we entered aur first year af high schaal life. We knew, toa, that as the first eighth grade under the 5-year pragram our progress would be watched closely.

With the guidance of our sponsors, Miss Maslaff, Mrs. Estrada, and Mr. Williams, we met as a class and chose Frances Taylor, President; Margaret Simpsan, Vice-President; June Parlaw, Secretary; and Daris Prentice, Treasurer.

Far the first few manths, we walked abaut in awe and amazement, but we gradually grew accustamed ta the rush and excitement af high schaal. Many af us tried aut far variaus clubs and, althaugh same were disappainted, we were very happy ta have Margaret Simpson represent us on the basketball team and Frances Taylor as a cheerleader.

Just as we were getting settled inta the rautine af high schaal, spring came and saan summer vacatian began.

Time went swiftly by and saan we were back at schaal as ninth graders, eager ta resume aur schaal activities. Our spansars were Miss MacDaniel and Miss Kyle. As our leaders, we chase Frances Taylor, President; Betty Bass, Vice-President; Jeannette Orcutt, Secretary; and June Parlaw, Treasurer.

Our class was represented in almast all of the schaal activities with Frances Taylar, Ann Hagaod, Margaret Simpson, Doris Collins, Jaan McDaniel, Ardeth Evans and Edna Clibarne winning pasitians an the girls' basketball team. We were represented an the bays' team by Garland Campbell, Bab Curtis, and Dauglas Cax.

In the fall carnival, aur class participated in variaus shaws and events. We had a part in the Physical Educatian pragram given for the P. T. A. Each time we were called an ta da a small part in some way far the schaal we were very praud and felt as if we were settling aurselves mare firmly inta aur high schaal life.

September 1947—We were 10th graders, and since there were na juniars, the secand highest grade in schaal. Realizing our respansibilities, we chase as capable leaders, Bab Curtis, President; Margaret Simpsan, Vice-President; Caralyn LaPrade, Secretary; and Lewis Reese, Treasurer. Mrs. Vaughan and Miss Cavanaugh were aur spansars.

We managed the junior store to raise maney for the mast impartant event af that year—Saphamore-Senior Pram. For a manth before the Pram, yau cauld see Saphamares, hurrying along the halls dragging a stack af black and white crepe paper with us ar maybe a half-finished silhauette for the spansars' appraval. The pass-word af our class those days was "May we get aut of class ta work an the prom?" Our ever-abliging teachers gave permissian.

Remember the paper cutting meetings?

Pram night came at iast and we felt amply repaid far all aur work. As we entered, we saw that the gymnasium had been transfarmed into a lavely silhauette ball raam. The ceiling was woven in black and white crepe paper giving a beautiful effect. Dancing silhauettes arrayed the walls.

At intermissian aur attentian was drawn to the twa beautifully decarated tables. The saphomore and seniar presidents cut the three-tiered cakes which were served with delicious punch.

September of 1948 found us 11th graders. We settled dawn ta work with aur spansors, Miss Cavanaugh and Mrs. Warren, and our leaders, Margaret Simpsan, President; Wiley Davis, Vice-President; Jeannette Orcutt, Secretary; and Lewis Reese, Treasurer.

Many students in aur class had became recagnized as schaal leaders, as S. C. A. officers, captains af the basketball teams, and as presidents of clubs. Betty Bass, a very active member of the Junior Red Crass, was chasen fram a graup af students throughaut the caunty to represent them at a Junior Red Crass meeting in Atlantic City. This was a great thrill as well as an achievement far Betty.

CLASS HISTORY

Time came to order our class rings. When they came, there was much excitement os we compored and tried on everyane's ring.

In the Spring we gove o ring dance and invited the seniors as guests of honor. Stardust was our theme. We turned the Gymnosium into a pleosont gorden ot night with o dork blue sky twinkling overheod with o mass of silver stors. Everyone hod o wonderful time.

There have been mony changes ot Manchester since we were frightened eighth groders. A new wing with twelve classrooms, clinic room, on ouditorium ond o cofeteria has been added.

With the building of Hally Inn we at lost found a suitable hangaut and could be found there olmost any time, even ot lunch.

At last, September af 1949! We were proud seniors ond entered into our senior yeor full of hoppy onticipotion, yet with o feeling of regret thot this would be aur lost yeor ot Manchester.

We elected Morgaret Simpson, President; Irby Brown, Vice-President; Wrenn Mooring, Secretary; and Lewis Reese, Treasurer. Mrs. Tompkins and Miss Fultan were our spansors.

The MEMOIR Staff was immediotely orgonized ond we begon work on our annual. Mony students warked hord ond faithfully, so thot our annuol would be one of the best.

On September 30ih, our class left Monchester an two schaol buses heoded for Chorlattesville. We were ta be guests of honor at the Virginio-Gearge Washingtan faatball game at Scott's Stodium. We also visited Monticello. All too soon we had to reiurn home but the day hod been fun!

The next dote on our social colendar wos December 22. The Christmos donce wos given in our new cofeteria which was decorated in the traditional holly ond cedor.

Another dote lang ta be remembered by our closs was March 17. We presented our first play, "Little Miss Spitfire." Heading the cast wos Margaret Simpsan os Nora, the little spitfire. Supporting her were Wayne Gibson, Ann Moore, Williom Clements, Ardeth Evans, Elva Clodfelier, Irby Brown, Lewis Reese, Peggy Moxey, Virginia Root, Leonard Morgan, and Harold Pannell. Mrs. Tompkins wos our director.

Time came for ordering our invitations ond colling cords. We really begon to reolize whot little time we hod left.

The daors of the Gymnosium were closed to the seniors os the juniors begon working an the pram. With noturol curiosity we would peek naw and then ond cotch o glimpse of the yellow and green decorations. Our curiosity wos sotisfied on May 12.

The gymnosium was decorated as o beautiful caloniol gorden. Sprays of hollyhocks and rases ottrocted our ottention ond the checkerboard woven ceiling blended perfectly. The prom wos o big success. We con never thank the juniors enough for such a wonderful time.

Our last months were filled with many hoppy events. The first wos our Seniar Bonquet, May 19. Appropriate gifts ond speeches were presented. Then came Seniar Doy. We had the freedom of the schaol ond in our senior S. C. A. pragrom, we said our farewell to the foculty ond student body.

On June 5th we received our diplomos ond become graduates of Monchester High School. Although we ore leoving our years of work and ploy, our successes and failures, all of thase things that have played a port in our high school life have made o dent in our memory that connot be erosed.

We sincerely thonk our teachers, aur principal and aur fellaw students for their help ond guidonce throughout the yeors we have spent with them.

This group consists of students that are interested in library work and students who assist Miss Leake during their study periods.

These library assistants and others interested in the club take part in various school activities aside from their main duty of work in the library.

MUSIC

This is the first year we have had public school music in our curriculum. Through this department we hope to train youth to sing better, to produce pure, true-to-pitch tones, to sing music with discrimination and taste, and to give students an experience that will enable them to grow in musical power and understanding.
